Victoria & Frank

Vintage Glam

Victoria & Frank both love the Rat Pack Era and Old Hollywood Glam, so settling on a wedding theme proved to be easy. No detail was left unplanned, from the personalized and monogrammed pillows to the custom paper fan backdrop behind the live band playing big band music. The addition of red roses throughout the décor truly stole the show amongst the black, gold and ivory color palette. Together, it created a bespoke, intimate experience for guests to feel as if they stepped back in time.

Always

Frank regularly signs his letters to Victoria with “I will love you, always.” In combination with the symbolism from Harry Potter, “Always” has become the couple’s personal mantra. They incorporated the “Always” emblem into every detail of their celebration, from their invitations to their table décor.

Unforgettable Moments

When reminiscing about their favorite moments from their Big Day, Victoria and Frank had a hard time narrowing down their list. Frank decided that one of his favorite moments was riding around in Victoria’s Dad’s vintage car at the end of the day. For Victoria, the best part of the day was seeing her groom waiting at the end of the aisle.
